Always Creative Thinking

Management philosophy: Wainscot reconfirms the meaning and importance of interior materials to affect humans, pursuing the innovation of eco-friendly residence culture beyond the simple interiors. Wainscot is a company preparing for everything to make an innovation for the residence culture, and would like to make the innovation for an eco-friendly residence culture through mouldings, panels, doors, and many other interior materials. Thus, establishing a design research institute, Wainscot has been creating designs for leading the better value of life by merely going beyond interiors through the comprehensive and systematic process.

COLLECTION
Pure White

Simple design

The Wainscot Paint Collection is a modern product that does not use colorful sculptures and can represent a modern interior that fits into the trends.

Self-interior

This is a product treated with special coating, so it does not become hand-stained during working time or in every day life. It is the product getting out of the concept, White is easy to be stained with dirt.

Eco-friendly

Wainscot uses environmentally friendly materials to protect the environment and nature. It is also a building material without sick house syndrome and does not cause allergies.
