100% PHENOLIC

Urea Free resin composition makes our sheets more flexible and this gives extra finesse and smoothness during the application of the furniture.

100% phenolic sheets have added green building advantage given they are environment and human friendly.

Nature, our source of inspiration, has shown us that we can overcome day-to-day setbacks with patience, tenacity, devotion and creativity.

We believe anything can be used as inspiration to define a unique and exclusive collection specially conceived to enhance your creations.

Inspired by nature and associated with an unlimited imagination Ecoking® creates and manufactures decorative surface products for people. We've accepted the challenge to turn the life and environment of people more creative, more emotional and in harmony with themselves and the environment.

It doesn't matter which application, Ecoking® gives surfaces an individual face!

But without a doubt, our most important value, the one of which we are proudest, is our team spirit. The human factor is the key to understand, interpret and meet the demands of our customers to guarantee an excellent product. We offer these values to our customers, who are our main source of motivation, and drive us to carry on improving every day.
