What is

Modern interior

Modernism is a philosophical movement of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century characterized by abstract thinking that differed from earlier eras' realism, romanticism, and renaissance beliefs. Modernism, particularly in art and architecture, was fashionable from the 1940s until the 1980s. Homes built in the contemporary style during this period included open floor plans, huge glass windows, geometric shapes and patterns, man-made materials, and natural features that demonstrated integration with the outdoors. Most interior designers focus on the usage of industrial features and materials in the home rather than the décor to achieve the minimalist aesthetic that modern design seeks. The features employed are straightforward and give the design a tidy appearance. Consider clean lines, minimalism, and color palettes that are neutral in tone.

SHIMMER SERIES

The Shimmer Collection is the most outrageous collection available. Each laminate is meticulously constructed, has a high-quality polish, and adds a lovely spark that instantly brightens any room. These shimmer laminates shine brightly and require less maintenance. The Trend series is strong and fashionable and gives your room a mirror-like shine and withstands abrasion and scuffing well and lasts longer.

INCORPORATE DARKER TONES FOR CONTRAST

Consider using dark tones in contrast to any lighter colors you prefer. Modern house design isn't frightened of brighter colors, so experiment with darker hues like black and charcoal grey. Other modern forms, particularly modern farmhouses, favor the dichotomy of light and dark colors.

GEOMETRIC DESIGN IS THE KEY

Strong shapes are a trademark of modern interior design, and there are numerous ways to incorporate geometric design into your house. Triangular coffee tables are popular in Mid-Century Modern design, while square sinks add a modern rustic touch to homes. Geometric forms aren't just for furniture! In the bathroom, consider using herringbone laminate to create a sleek, eye-catching aesthetic.

4

PUT OPEN SHELVING IN THE KITCHEN

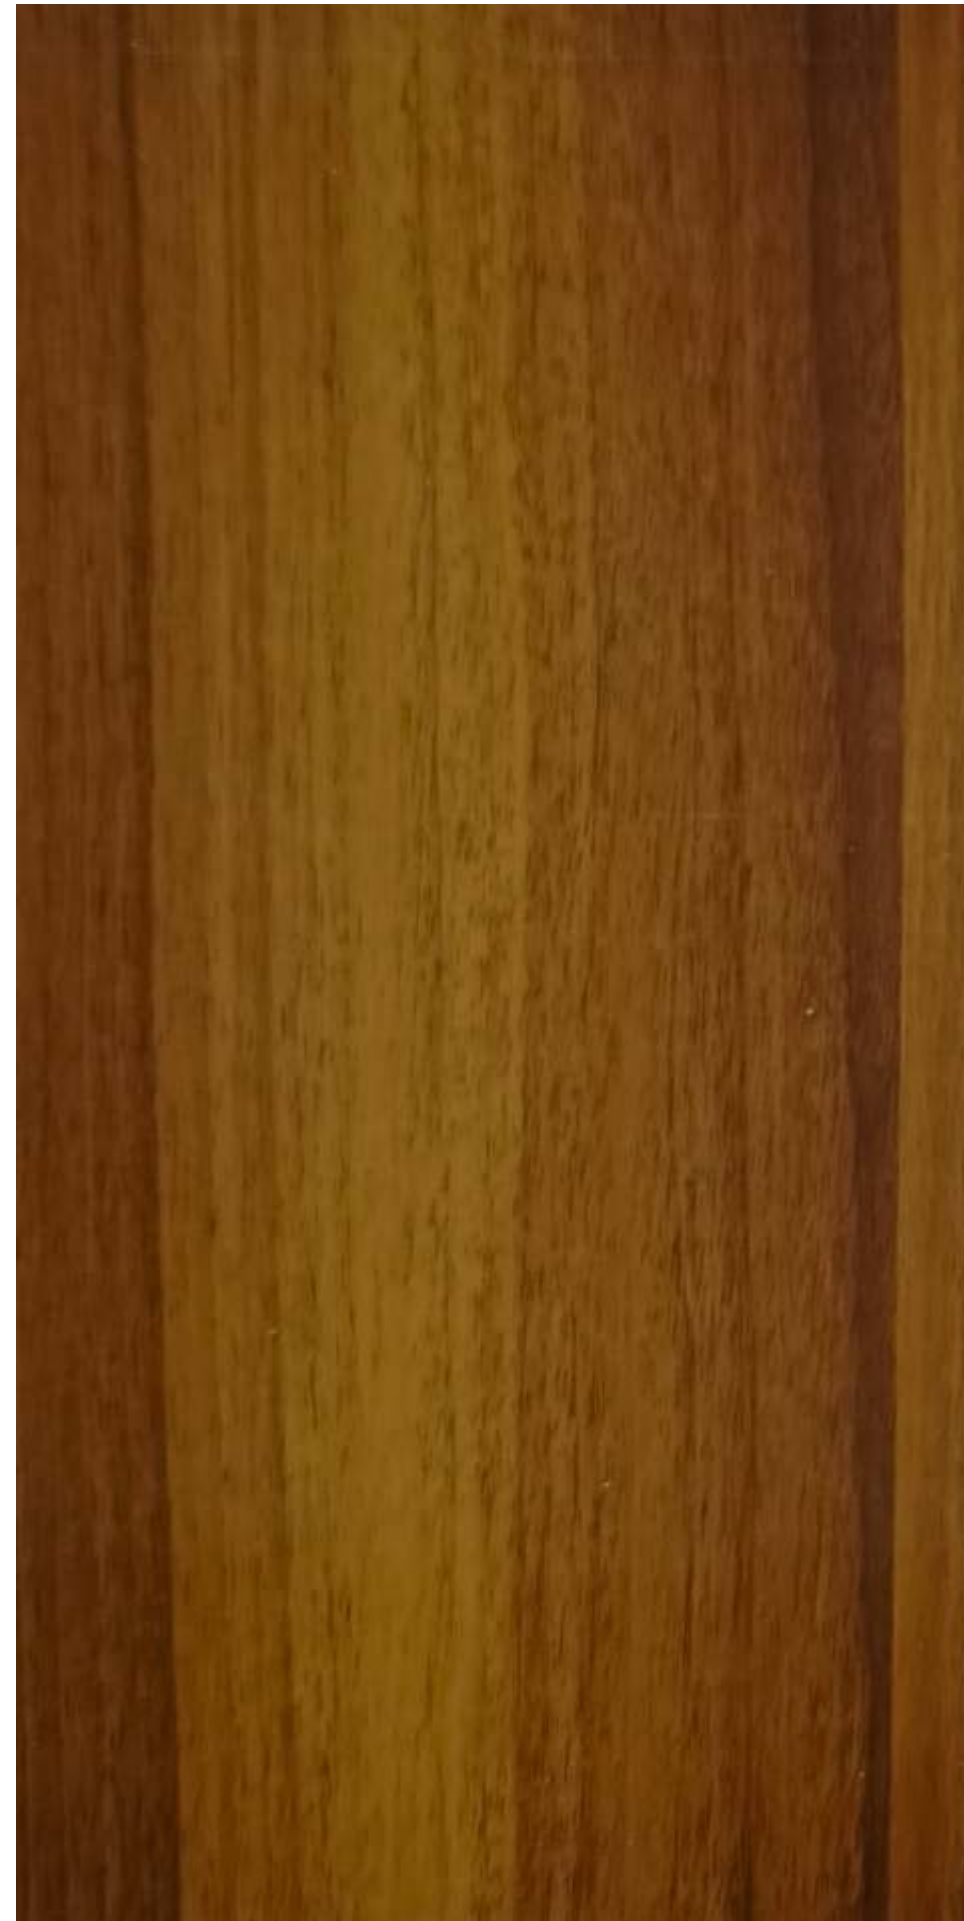

This kitchen storage solution makes it easy to reach plates and utensils and makes your kitchen feel more open. If you don't want to commit to the open shelving style altogether, designate one space for shelves while keeping your cabinets for the rest of the kitchen!

VENEER COLLECTION

The Veneer Collection offers an abundance of laminates with the texture of real wood grains and is exquisitely designed for those who admire the outdoors. Perfect for staying near nature while taking in the captivating outside from within your house. A variety of imported, distinctive, and high-grade wood veneer sheets from Trend are available to assist you to add a touch of refinement and warmth to all different sorts of living spaces. OPT FOR RAISED FURNITURE

Many modern furniture pieces have a raised appearance, which adds clean lines to any decor. Consider adding hairpin side tables to your bedside tables or putting an accent chair with wooden dowel legs in a plain area. Lean furniture is also ideal for smaller rooms because it creates a more open appearance!

BE PUNCHY WITH PATTERNS

Combining diverse patterns in the same room might be difficult, but a good idea is to use distinct patterns in comparable hues, or the same design but in different scales. Try little florals blended with giant blowsy blooms, or opt for dramatic geo forms in different colours.

Design to Communicate

NOT JUST DECORATE

7

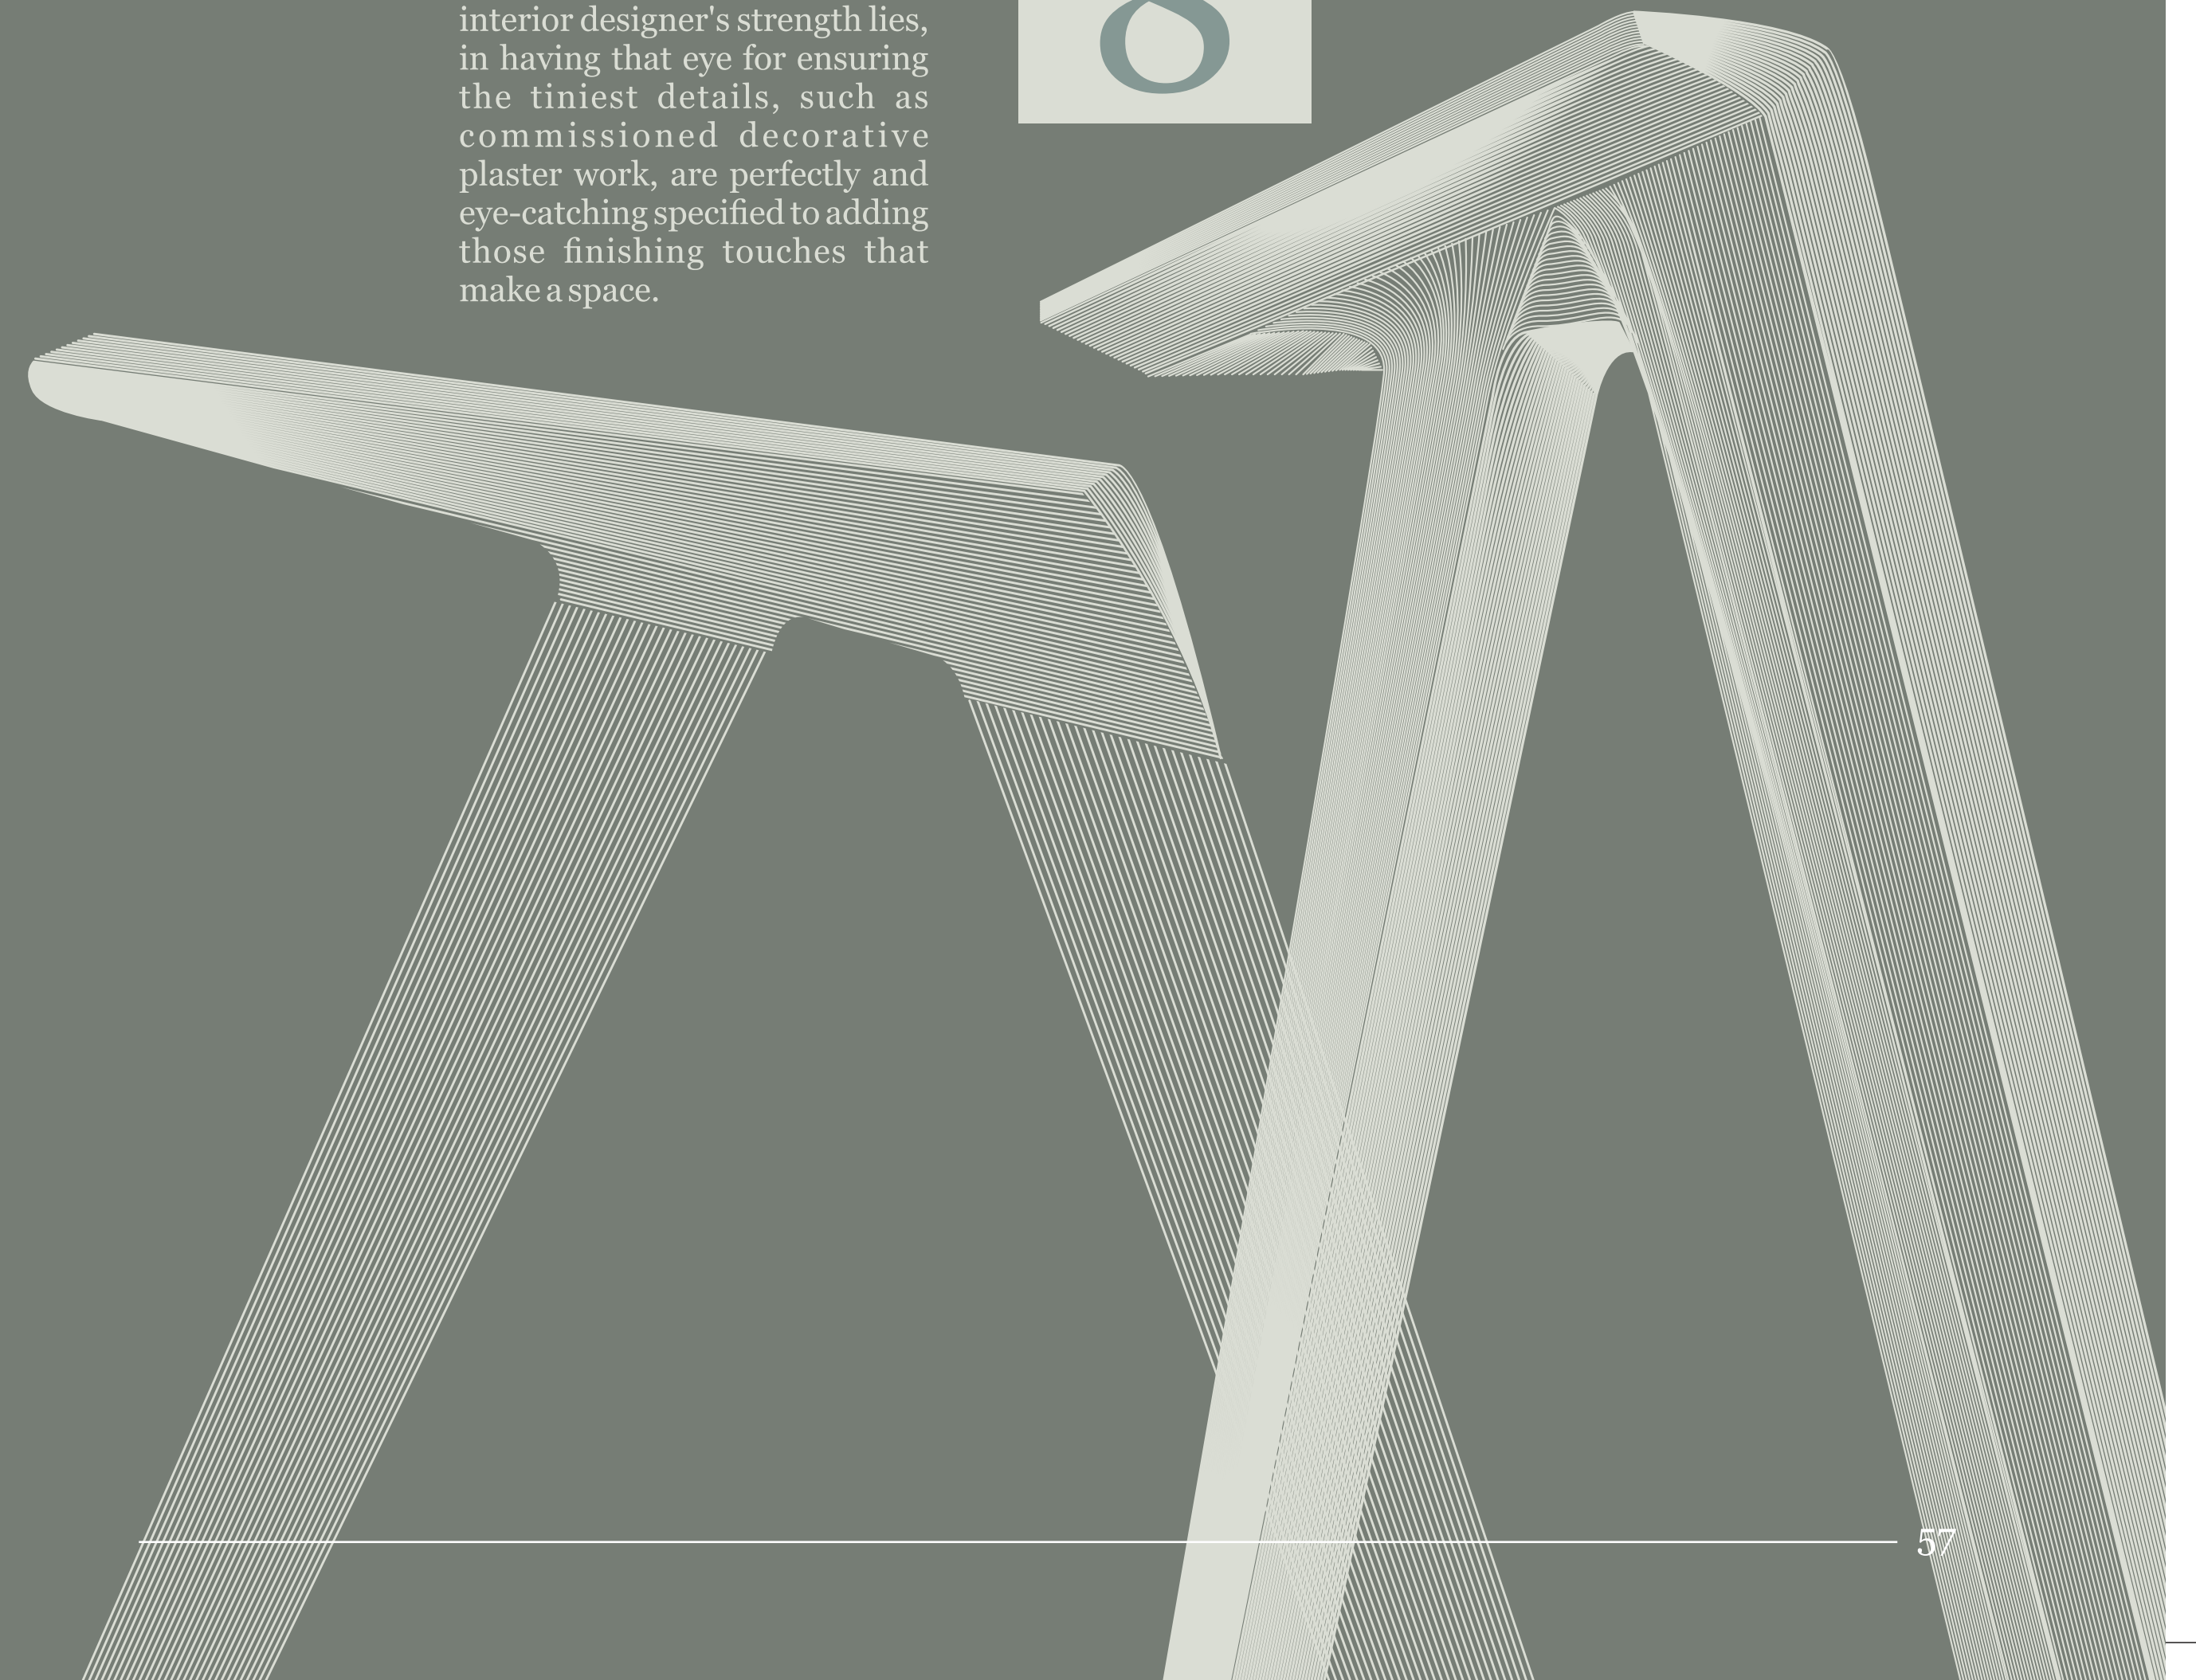

EVERY DETAIL MATTERS

This is where a professional interior designer's strength lies, in having that eye for ensuring the tiniest details, such as commissioned decorative plaster work, are perfectly and eye-catching specified to adding those finishing touches that make a space.

8

BRING A ROOM TO LIFE WITH LIGHTING

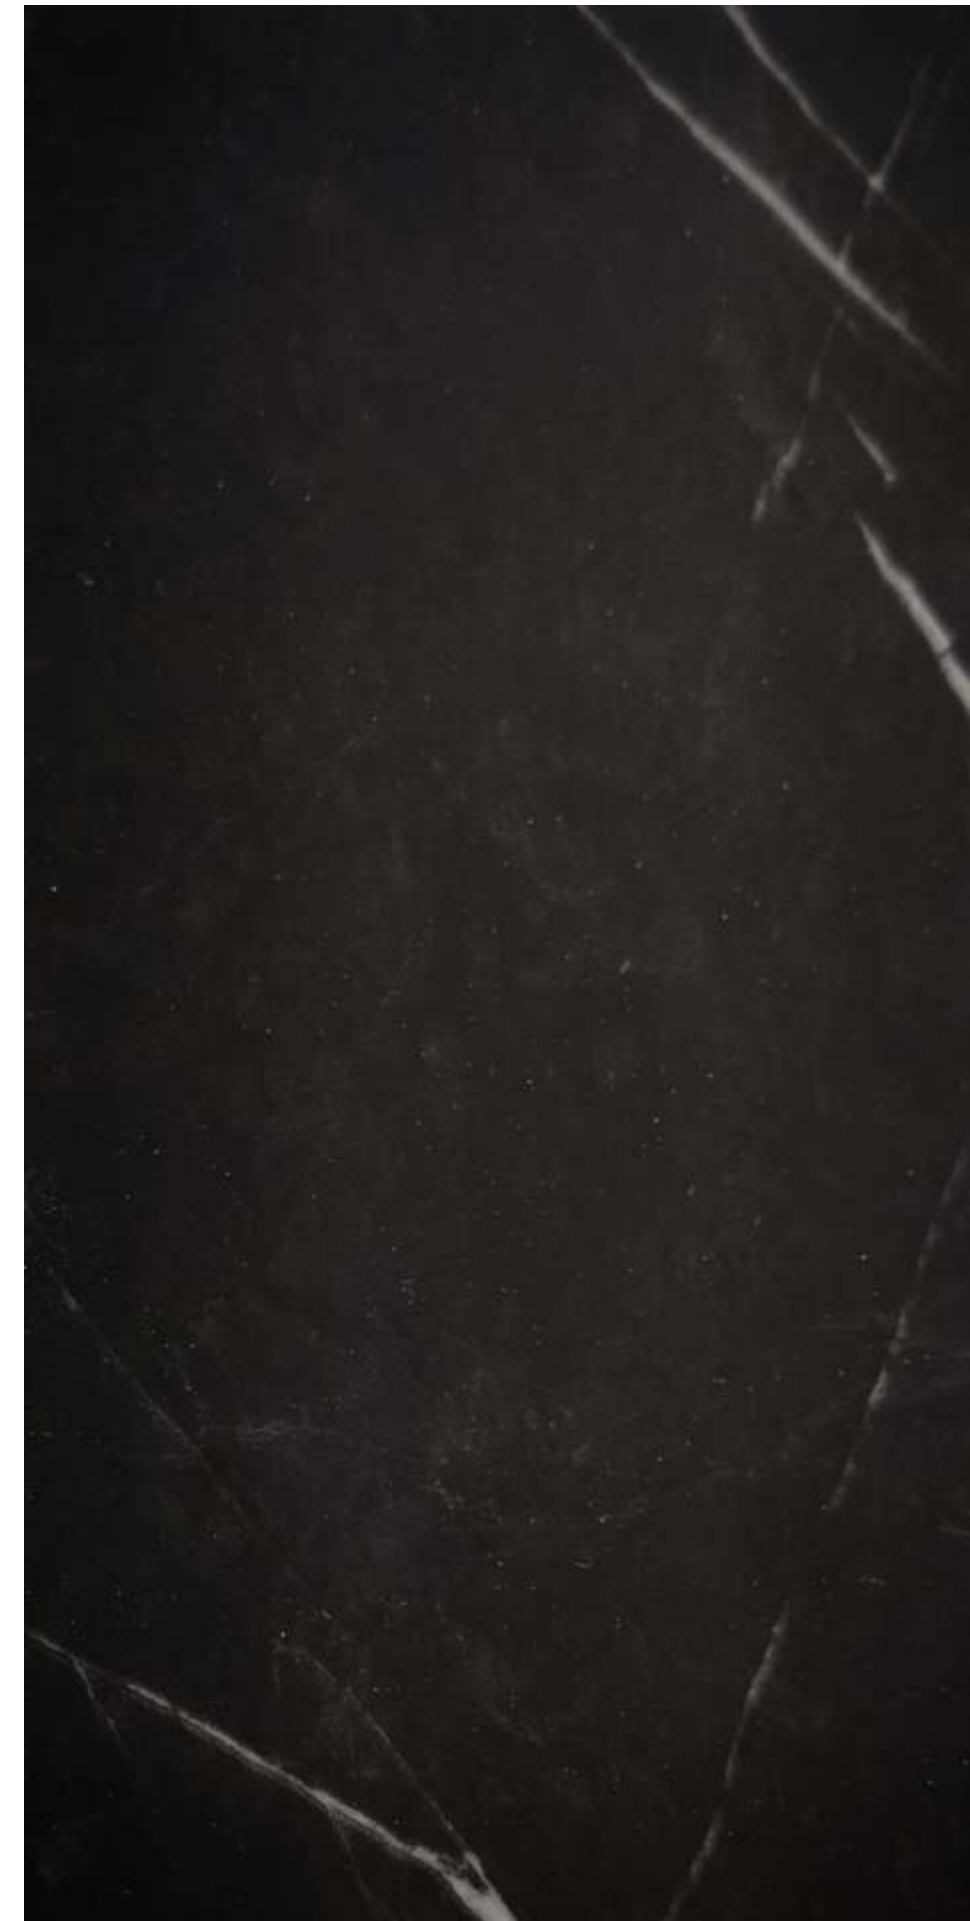

If you don't have a lot of natural light, living in the dark isn't your only option. There are a few ingenious ways you can try to boost the quantity of light coming through your windows. It's a good idea to glance outdoors and see if any trees or shrubs are blocking your windows. If there are, consider reducing them or replacing them with smaller options.

Four reasons to love your Laminate Countertops

1 Low Maintenance

Laminate is generally less expensive than most other materials. Examine the largest samples available and test them in your kitchen. To maintain their appealing qualities, laminate sheets used for kitchen countertops require very little care. You only need a wipe cloth to clean the surfaces and no pricey cleaning chemicals to maintain the countertops dust-free. Remember that, unlike more expensive materials, laminate can be upgraded at a substantially lower price.

2 Stain/ Scratch Resistant

Countertops are subjected to a lot of wear and tear, so you'll want to know how they'll age before deciding on a material. Trend laminates are resistant to stains and heat and sheets in the kitchen are designed to provide excellent resistance to stains and imperfections that are frequent in the kitchen.

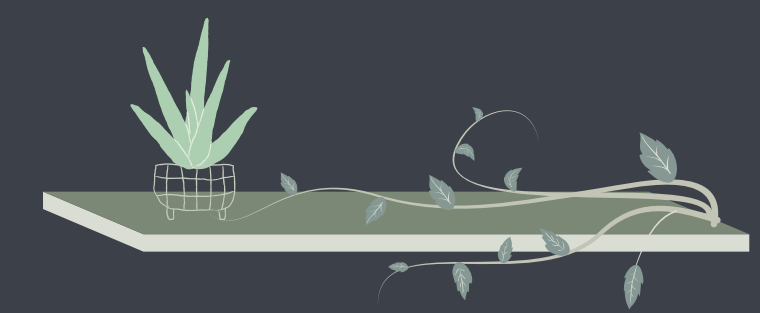

3 Wide Range of Varieties

The colors & varieties available when it comes to selecting countertops are immense. It's safe to say that with Trend countertops, every part of your vision will be covered with ease. The wide range of varieties is a big benefit as you can't get the same with other countertops materials.

4 Resonates with Natural Beauty

Natural is always better than artificial. No matter how many artificial tactics & materials you use to decorate your kitchen, nothing can beat the natural beauty that Trend countertops offer. Trend countertops come from slabs and thus the natural beauty they offer is in abundance. So, if you are a nature lover and looking to incorporate nature into your kitchen setup, a Trend countertop is your definite answer.

FRENCH STONE

French Stone collection represents the purest form of resonating colors, taking a cue from Ancient Architecture. This collection presents you with limitless choices for an application that would make your interior spaces light up. Light, Dark, Subtle, or Blingy, we have got all of your color palettes covered in our amazing French Stone collection.

We transform them

9

DECORATE YOUR INTERIORS IN THREES

When it comes to decorating your space, it can be beneficial to decorate in threes. When people have a lot of objects dispersed over their houses, the eye becomes overwhelmed and doesn't know where to look. When they are arranged in groups of three, the attention is pulled to the topmost piece and descends.

10

GO BOLD WITH MODERN ART

Art galleries can help with deciding on a color palette for a home's interior decor. Your guests will be astounded when they see these magnificent paintings on your wall. However, if you're on a tight budget, flea markets and bazaars are excellent places to hunt for low-cost, high-quality art and décor. As a focal point, large artwork with minimal or no frame hanging on the wall is great. Choose a modest art series for huge walls rather than a gallery wall arrangement, which will detract from the modernist impact.
